TIMES-VIRGINIAN

WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1922

The still hunt for voters continues. The primary will be August 1st This county apparently has been well organized for Senator Swanson under the supervision of Senator S. L Ferguson, who is managing the campaign in the Tenth district for Swanson.

Buckingham

The men who threshed wheat came right along with motor trucks and gathered up their toll and some wheat changed hands at $1 per bushel. A neighbor of mine is taking a lot of veals off today and nine cents seems to be the top price.

Mr. Patterson has a new car to carry mail, and Mr. Springer a new truck to haul ties.

The soldier comrades of Mr. Charles A. Scott who was partially paralyzed a short while ago will be glad to know that he is some what better at last report.

Mr. A. C. Wood was having a road machine run over the sand clay roads in James river district last week

The vital statistic report for June gave three births and one death.

P. P. Glover with his usual good management got wheat threshed while it was dry and saved hay while the sun shone.

Mrs. H. C. Glover was a visitor in the home of her aunt Mrs Charles Scott last week.

Idle men who are longing for work to do, have to stand and see the job the railroad striker has made vacant remain so, for the job of strike breaking is a dangerous one.

Mrs. H. H. Davis, of Cumberland, who was Miss Lucy Pearson before her marriage, has been visiting at her old home. Mrs Davis has a little girl named Alma for her mother.

Protracted services are expected to begin at Mulberry Grove on the 5th Sunday in this month and the church members expect to put a fresh coat of paint on the church before that time.

I am no pessimist, but I hear men say if taxes go higher and the selling prices of farm products go lower, that, in the time to come improvident people who own poor land will have to give it up and let it go delinquent; already gov't bonds are above par largely because they are non taxable.

Hixburg

The agricultural club will give a lawn party on the school grounds on the evening of the 14th at 7:30.

Mrs. J. H. McCue had a narrow escape from being seriously hurt when she was thrown from her buggy; this kept her from going to Providence, R. I. as delegate of the Nat. Woman's Conference.

Frank Harris, colored, about 35 years old dived from Shelving Rock Sunday into 15 feet of water; when companions got him up by means of a rope he was dead.

Mrs. Arthur Armstrong is back home from the hospital and her friends hope for her a speedy recovery to her normal health.

Justice W A Swan and all other justices of the county were summoned before the Board Supervisors today to make report of the conduct of their offices.

The Woman's Missionary Union of Appomattox Asso. met with Evergreen church on 28th and 29th June, and the people of that place showed the visitors that splendid Appomattox hospitality for which the county is noted. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hamilton deserve special mention for courtesies and attention extended. The program was fine. Mrs. McCue reported nearly $11,000 collections this year in her district.

Mr. John Fore, of Mt. Hope, W. Va., is here on a visit to his home folks.

Mr. Tillery who farms the Harwood place threshed out 53¾ bushels wheat from two acres of Fulcaster grade.

Mr. Frank Harwood and family, of Jarret, have been spending the last week at the old home place.

Mr. J. T. Hix left Tuesday morning for Richmond to consult his physician.

Mr. J. Sears Hix, of Greensboro, N.C., was home for a few days last week.

Messrs. Frank and Willie Coleman, of Statesville, N. C, are spending a few days on Appomattox river.

Lacy Almond who cut his foot last week is expected out soon.

Masons Play Ball

The Appomattox ball park was much crowded with interested spectators last Thursday when Pamplin Lodge of Masons locked horns in brotherly love with Appomattox. The game abounded with errors, good plays, fast running, turkey trots, &c.

The line-up was as follows:

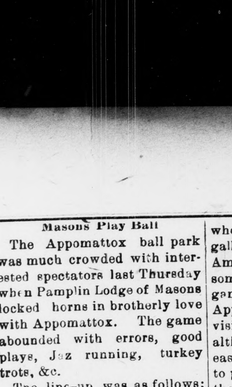
Appomattox	A B	R
Vanvolkenburg, 1st b.	5	3
Price 2nd b	5	2
Byrne s s	5	5
Scott 3rd b.	5	1
Gayle l. f.	4	1
James c. f.	4	1
Twyman r. f.	4	0
Spencer p.	4	0
Burkey	4	2
Total	40	15

Conner, Babcock, Martin, subs.

Pamplin	A B.	R.
Baldwin 2nd b.	6	2
Thornton c.	6	0
Paulett V. P. 1st b.	6	0
Carwile 3rd b.	6	2
Loving s s.	6	1
Dickerson l. f.	5	3
Moran c. f.	5	2
McCall r. f.	5	2
Pugh p.	5	1
Total	50	13

Paulett E. L., sub.

There were many hits made and good running was one of the exciting features of the game. Several collissions occurred, but no bones were broken. Southall, of Pamplin umpired basis and Shipman, of Williamsburg, the balls



M. Ump. batter and catcher talk it over

Both were declared to be rotten by players, but spectators as a rule upheld the umpires and the sheriff was on hand to hold the irate batter and baserunner off the umpire. Drs. Twyman and Ould were on hand with bandadges, sticking plaster and liniment to keep the players in the fight, though it took heroic work to hold some of the fat babies up to the finish. Fresh laundried uniforms soon became like dishrags.

Vernon is no mean 1st baseman

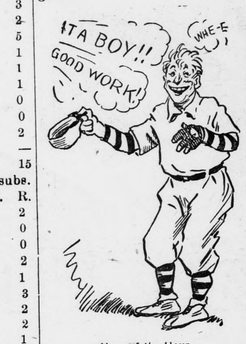
Vernon Paulett appeared as manager for Pamplin and he was continually on the job, and none of the umpires dared dispute with his satanic magisty.

Advice Wasted.

Charlie James (yellow boy) always uneasy,

There was a good crowd of rooters from Pamplin along who never lost heart for their gallant and weary travelers. Among this crowd there were some pretty Rebeccas who were game to the last

Appomattox took a lead on the visitors and held it to the finish although the fans showed uneasiness as the visitors began to pound the ball and renew their vigor towards end of the game.



Hero of the Hour.

Ed Price has offers 'would shame Ruth

None of the Pamplin players have been seen since the close of the day, and few of the Appomattox boys can be located outside of their quarters. Supplies of liniments and heart stimulants have been exhausted.

In the evening a royal spread was laid at the dormitory here and plates for 100 were arranged by the Appomattox Rebeccas and Masons. The banquet was complete and the lecture of Dis. Grand Master Dansport, of Burkeville was pronounced a master piece.

The editor of this paper asks for a reserve seat at your next game, and if there are to be any fights or crows to pull do it now, that he may recuperate in time for next game.

Westmoreland Davis

Candidate for

United States Senator

in the Democratic Primary, August 1st, 1922.

If you favor relief from the burden of National taxation; if you believe in a real National Budget; if you want efficiency in Government; if you approve of a man who redeemed his pledges 100%, vote for Westmoreland Davis.

If you want a fearless, courageous Statesman, a man not afraid; a man who has fought, unceasingly, the farmers' battles for twenty years, vote for Westmoreland Davis.

This is the peoples' and farmers' fight against the "Ring". Help to smash this "Machine" by voting for Westmoreland Davis.

Her Money Was Gone!

An old woman who lived alone had kept nearly $2,000 00 in currency around her house for years. She was afraid of banks.

Last fall she became seriously ill, and——

No, she didn't die But when she went to look for the cash it was gone! Fortunately some honest friends had found it while she was unconscious and had deposited it to her credit in a bank.

This woman has now decided that after all the bank is the safest place, and, besides, her money is not idle any longer. It is now earning 4 per cent for its owner.

Let us put your money to work for you.

VICTORIES OF PEACE EQUAL THOSE OF WAR

Whether the task is the construction of a colossal harbor improvement project, or the administration of a newly acquired insular possession, the Department of War is always prepared to bring to the task a high degree of skill and masterful judgment. How "peace hath her victories no less renowned than war" for the military department of the nation is interestingly described and illustrated in one of an instructive series of articles on Our Government now being distributed exclusively by this Institution.

We shall be pleased to see that you receive the complete series, if you will send us your name and address.
